

Summary of St. Mary's RC Primary School Data 2025-26

EYFS data 2026

| St Mary'sGood level of development (GLD)2025 | National (GLD)2026 | Local Authority(GLD)2025 |
|------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 83%                                                  | 68%                    | 61%                              |

| Area of Learning      | % that met the ELG in 2024 |
|-----------------------|----------------------------|
| Maths Number          | 89%                        |
| Reading Word          | 83%                        |
| Reading Comprehension | 89%                        |
| Writing               | 89%                        |

Year 1 Phonics Screening 2025

85% of the children passed their phonics screening this year which is above National at 82% (88% passed at Y2)

Year 4 Multiplications Check 2025

Our average mean score was 21.9 this year which is just above the current national average of 21.6. 3 1% scored full marks which was below the national at 44%.

Year 6 SATs Results for 2025

|         | St. Mary's % atExpected 2026 | National % atExpected 2026 | St. Mary's % atGreater Depth2026 | National % atGreater Depth2026 |
|---------|----------------------------------|--------------------------------|------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| GPS     | 87%                              | 74%                            | 50%                                      | 30%                                    |
| Reading | 77%                              | 75%                            | 40%                                      | 30%                                    |
| Maths   | 87%                              | 75%                            | 40%                                      | 27%                                    |
| Writing | 70%                              | 73%                            | 7%                                       | 13%                                    |

Combined for maths, reading and writing at Expected standard for St. Mary's was 70% which is above National at 63% and the combined at greater depth is 7% compared to 8% National

We are still awaiting progress measures but expect these to show strong progress from KS1 to end of KS2.